

LKG

Clay Modelling Activity

Clay modelling as a fun activity is aimed at the development of creativity, imagination and fine motor skills. As the children mould clay, they learn about various shapes and textures. They are able to create simple objects using clay in the classroom that encourages self-expression.

