

Class V Gears Up for the Annual Drill Display

Students of Class V are enthusiastically practicing for the Annual Drill Display, showcasing discipline, coordination, and teamwork. With focused training and dedicated rehearsals, the students are learning the importance of unity, precision, and physical fitness. Their energetic participation and commitment reflect their excitement and readiness to present a well-synchronised and impressive performance on the big day.

