

Starfish craft

The UKG children joyfully made a Starfish craft, using their creativity and fine motor skills. Through this hands-on activity, they explored sea life while learning. The colourful starfish creations reflected the children's enthusiasm, imagination, and love for learning through fun.

